FAITH IN BROTHER IS UNSHAKEN, HE SAYS

Elijah Purnell of Newcastle Asserts That "King" of Religious Cult is Innocent

BELIEVES THAT HE IS DEAD

Newcastle, Ind., May 1.—Unshaken by the testimony of alleged immorality at the House of David as revealed by the probe of Michigan officials into the affairs of the cult, Elijah Purnell, brother of "King" Benjamin Purnell, missing head of the sect, today declared his faith in his brother's innocence.

Elijah declared he believed the probe was the result of "hidden forces" trying to get hold of the property of the sect.

His brother's name will be cleared of all the charges that have been made against him, Elijah said. He believes Benjamin is dead, and says he has not heard from him for four months.

Proves His Innocence

Marysville, Ohio, May 1.—Joseph Kawalski resumed his trade as a scissors grinder today, freed of the suspicion of being "King" Benjamin Purnell, missing ruler of the House of David.

Kawalski was released from jail
after a photo of "King" Benjamin revealed the prisoner resembled him only slightly.

SPARKS SET ROOF ON FIRE

Scanlan Sisters, 224 W. 5th St.

A large two story dwelling house owned and occupied by the Misses Mary and Margaret Scanlan, 224

fire this morning at 9:30 o'clock

fire to the roof. The loss was estimated at about $40 being confined to a small section in the roof. The blaze was extinguished with chemicals, and no water was thrown.

The fire department was called over the telephone, and an alarm was turned in from box 42, corner Fifth and Harrison streets. Insurance will cover the small loss.

the summer were discussed.

Albert F. Cotton, director of physi-ganization stands.

RUBBISH COLLECTION TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY

City Wagons Will Begin Making
Rounds Of City In Observance
Of "Clean-Up Week"

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

"Clean-Up Week" got off to a good start in Rushville Monday, and the city wagons will commence collecting the trash and rubbish on Wednesday. A. J. Farthing, city street commissioner, will start the wagons out in the northeast section of the city in the morning, and they will work through the alleys, north and south, and east and west thus covering all of the city in the next few days.

People are urged to have their rubbish and trash in boxes, cans or bags so that the city men can make as rapid headway as possible in the city collection.

It has been urged that people place these containers in alleys at the rear of their homes, as the wagons will not collect them from the streets.

The response has been well received this week, as people have been busily engaged in cleaning up their yards, vacant lots and alleys, in an effort to make Rushville spic and span, as well as sanitary. The city will collect all trash that cannot be burned, and no brush or ashes will be collected, but must be hauled off at the expense of the property occupant.

NOW COMES THE STRUGGLE

SEES REDUCTION IN STATE RATE

Gov. McCray, Singles Out Instances Of Savings To Taxpayers In Speech at Bloomington

SAYS LEVY MUST BE LOWERED

Urges Farm Bureau Officials To Make Statements On Marketing
Law Stand With Facts

Bloomington, Ind., May 1.—Specific instances of savings to taxpayers made by the state administration were singled out by Governor McCray in a speech here today at a meeting of second district Republicans. Reduction of the state tax rate next year is in sight, Governor McCray declared, and until then, he said, the state administration "is conducting the state's fiscal affairs in such a way that the taxes on general property will not be increased."

In relating how money was being saved in the building of the new reformatory, Governor McCray pointed out that Florida, following a different penal system than Indiana, stands disgraced before the country because of a boy, serving sentence for stealing a ride on a railroad train, was beaten to death in a convict camp.

"Perhaps, the Democratic state chairman prefers the Florida system; I don't and our people don't commented the governor, taking cognizance of political complaint of the new reformatory expenditure.

Further, the governor assailed the Democrats for misrepresenting state expenditures, declaring that "partisan political enthusiasm often inspires assertions that do not line up with actual facts."

"No one can explain of criticism,
if it is an honest constructive criticism," declared Governor McCray.
"I only insist that all criticism be confined to facts. I want the people to have the plain simple truth. It is singular and significant that those who complain of extravagance do not point out a single specific way to really save money."

In this connection, the governor referred to Democratic claims during the legislative session that state expenditures would amount to $45-000,000 annually, and he showed that this was exaggeration by $20-000,000.

Governor McCray called on officials of the Indiana Farm Bureau, who have complained of his veto of the co-operative marketing law, to make

ABOUT $215,000 TO BE PAID

Tax Collections Average $36,000 A Day If All Paid

Collection of taxes at the county
treasurer's office must average $36-000 a day for the remainder of the spring taxpaying period, which closes next Monday, if all of the spring installment is paid, it was figured out today at the treasurer's office.

The office will be open next Saturday and Monday nights for the convenience of those who can't call during the daytime.

Collections up to the opening of business this morning amounted to $294,839.93, leaving a balance of approximately $215,000 on the books to be paid, and with six days yet to pay. Saturday set the record for the season, collections amounting to $20,012.85, and Monday they were $644.28.

WEDNESDAY NEAR EAST BUNDLE DAY

People of City Are Asked to Give Cast-off Clothing To Needy Refugees of Asia Minor

BOY SCOUTS ARE IN CHARGE

Those Wishing The Scouts to Call For Their Bundles May Notify
D. R. Merrell

Wednesday is Near East Bundle Day. The people of Rushville are asked to give their cast-off, worn-out clothing to the needy refugees of Asia Minor and it is pointed out that these old garments may be the means of saving lives in the Near East during next winter's bitter weather. Clean out the attic and closet corners, it is urged and many articles will be found that will clothe someone over there who is in rags and tatters.

D. R. Merrell, chairman of Wednesday's bundle day, is hopeful of large returns. Everybody has old clothes that are cast off or have been worn until they are no longer valuable or are out-of-date. Most people are willing to give them away to a worthy charity but they say it is too much trouble to make up a bundle. Right now is a busy season, and if any one feels he can not tie up a bundle, Boy Scouts will be sent for the clothing and they will bundle them later.

Following is a list of some of the things that can be used to a great advantage: coats and sweaters, dresses, blankets, wool shirts, heavy hose, wool gloves, boots and shoes (must be tied in pairs), shop worn garments, sheets for bandages, new cloth, and any other heavy warm clothing in which there is still some

FIRE DEPARTMENT MAKES NEW RECORDS

Month Of April Busiest On Record
With 12 Calls Answered—Three
In One Day

DIVORCES OFFSET MARRIAGES

The fire department established a new record for alarms answered during the month of April, when a total of 12 runs were made and the fire loss within the city was estimated at $425 for the period. The fire loss for the year is a trifle above the $1,000 mark.

Of the twelve runs during the month the greatest loss was to a poor room at Seventh and Arthur streets, while roof fires caused two other $100 losses. Two of the runs were made to places where fires were reported to be burning out, and one alarm was false. Three runs were made in one day. A summary of the runs is as follows: April 6, I. & C. traction car; Mrs. Florence Pearce residence; Winkler Grain Elevator; April 12, Pool room, 7th & Arthur streets; April 15, Euphemia Lewis, ton; Poston, country; April 27, Chase Saddle, residence.

For the month of April, fifty five couples applied for marriage license at the county clerk's office, and the same number applied for divorces.
A total of 26 civil suits were filed during the month.

STUDENT'S BODY HAS BEEN FOUND

Leighton Mount, Freshman Of Northwestern Who Disappeared In 1921,
Has Been Identified

BODY FOUND NEAR A PIER

Skeleton Was Found, Giving Appearance That Work Was Done—
By Sophomores At Hazing Time

Chicago, May 1.—Discovery of the body of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University freshman who disappeared after an alleged inter-class hazing in 1921, was followed today by renewal of wide-spread investigation of his death.

Mount's body was discovered covered by sand and rocks in a pier near Evanston last night. Police recovered the skeleton after its presence had been reported by Henry Warren, 12, playing near the place.

Police said that the rope knotted about the skeleton were similar to that used in a 1921 class rush after which, it is alleged another youth, Arthur P. Persinger, was found bound and hanging head downward to a Lake Michigan piling.

University officials at the time however, declared Persinger had not been bound.

Discovery of Mount's body followed a search of almost two years.
Mrs. J. L. Mount, his mother was near collapse today after identifying a belt buckle marked "L. M." as that of her son's.

Police officials refuted a theory of suicide. They had to cut a hole in the pier which served as a breakwater to recover the skeleton. They claim the body must have been lowered through a hole in the planking.

All of Mount's close associates were summoned by authorities for questioning. President Walter Dill Scott of the University instructed students to aid the police.

Discovery of the body followed closely the death last week of Louis Aubrey, a freshman, killed in an auto accident which he and other Freshmen were searching for a classmate alleged to have been kidnapped by sophomores.

President Scott declared he does not believe Mount's death was due to hazing, that the class rush of 1921 was over several hours before he disappeared.

Scott called attention to a letter
Mount was said to have written telling a girl friend "good-bye."

Mrs. Mount asserted belief that if her son died from effects of hazing the cause of death was accidental.

WIN CASE AGAINST FAKE SWINE CURES

Government Takes Hand When Prosecution Is Made Against John Dobry Firm

CLAIMED HOG CHOLERA CURE

Farmers in Many States Met With Serious Losses When Medicine Failed to Work

The United States Department of Agriculture recently won an important suit under the food and drugs act against the John Dobry Manufacturing Company, which has been manufacturing and selling an alleged cure for hog cholera, tuberculosis, and other swine diseases, for several years at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Unusual interest was shown in the case because of the positive claims made for the remedy by the manufacturer. Farmers throughout many States had tried the cure, and numbers of them had suffered disastrous hog losses. A farmer in Nebraska lost nearly $800 worth of hogs experimenting with the cure in one season. The State of Iowa brought suit against this company for misbranding packages and making false statements, but lost the suit in court. Complaint was made by a Nebraska farmer, and another in Maryland, to the Bureau of Animal Industry, that Dobry's alleged hog cure had caused them hog losses because its use had not only failed to cure their diseased hogs, but it had caused them to delay serum treatment until too late to be effective. The case was based on a shipment of the alleged remedy from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to Maywood, Illinois, whence it was forwarded to a laboratory of the Bureau of Chemistry, United States Department of Agriculture, for analysis. It was found to contain a few common drugs and a large amount of arsenic.

The case was tried in the Federal Court for the northern district of Iowa before Judge George C. Scott who impaneled a jury consisting principally of Iowa farmers. The jury showed much interest in the expert testimony given by Federal and State veterinarians concerning the nature of hog diseases, and the prevention of hog cholera by the use of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog cholera-virus. One of the Government's principal witnesses was Dr. D. B. Clark of the Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station whom Dobry had asked to make a test of his remedy in order that he might have a license permitting him to sell his cure in the State of Indiana. Dr. Clark conducted 2 series of special tests on hogs with Dobry's alleged remedy and found that it was not a cure or preventive for hog cholera and could not be recommended for an Indiana license. A number of farmers who had tried the remedy testified as to their experience with it.

Veterinarians who are engaged in the country-wide fight against hog diseases regard this victory against the Dobry Manufacturing Company, and its fake hog cure as of great value because of its warning to others who seek to sell fake cures for animal diseases. Quack remedies such as Dobry's do damage in various ways. Farmers who are induced to try them for treating or curing hog cholera and similar diseases usually lose most of the animals treated. While farmers are experimenting their entire herds are becoming infected, and it is usually too late for them to apply the proper treatment when they learn their mistakes.

CONTROL SIZE BY HATCHING CHOICE

Shape And Color Of Egg Also Determined By Egg From Which Hen Is Raised

OTHER POINTS TO REMEMBER

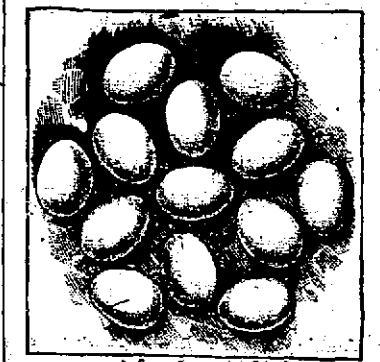

Eggs For Incubation Should Come From A Variety Of Hens With Health And Vitality

By SETH W. SHOEMAKER

At times there is considerable discussion as to improving the size shape and color of hens' eggs, but very few poultry men make any effort in this direction.

The time to try is when the eggs are being selected for hatching. Improvement may not be so pronounced the first year, as marked results can not come from a single selection. To be successful on a considerable scale the selection must be continued year after year.

Eggs for incubation should come from a variety of hens that have health and vitality to a marked degree. The best results are obtained from eggs selected during the hen's second or third year of laying.

In selecting eggs it should be remembered that the size of offspring is influenced more by the female than by the male. That is, small hens usually lay small eggs that produce small fowl and large eggs usually come from large fowls and normally produce large offspring. Of course exceptions can be found. The shape is a matter of importance. Eggs should be chosen that average size rather than too large or too small for their kind. Flocks should always be avoided.

Color is an essential characteristic of eggs. Especially care should be given to seeing that the color is both uniform and clear and that the shell has a good, smooth finish. When it is desired to produce pullets that lay eggs with brown shells eggs should be selected for incubation that have a shade of the color preferred, and this shade should be uniform throughout the shell. Pullets that are hatched from eggs whose shells are not uniform in color are apt to lay eggs with shells uneven in color.

The appearance of white shelled eggs is materially improved by a careful selection of only pure white shelled eggs for incubation. Frequent examples of uneven color in eggs are found in flocks of Leghorns. Some members of a flock will lay eggs that have a cream or straw tint. Any of these tints may be thoroughly established within a few years if eggs that have only the desired tints are used for hatching. The production of pure white shelled eggs can be established only by carefully selecting eggs at hatching time.

The finish of the egg shell also has an important bearing upon its marketing. Eggs that are imperfect in shape or have a rough surface will not produce good results in future generations and should be discarded.

When several birds or varieties of fowls are mixed in a flock the result is usually eggs of an uneven color. When white shelled producers are placed with those laying brown shelled eggs the eggs usually have a variable color and unattractive appearance. Care should be taken in introducing males into a flock because the uniform color of the eggs produced by a flock that has been carefully selected may be materially changed within two generations.

Prize money amounting to $275.00 and a wonderful experience is offered by the Duroc breeders to the boys and girls of Indiana showing Duroc pigs at the Indiana State Fair this year.

This show is open to all boys and girls from the age of 10 to those who have not reached the age of 19 before July 1st, 1923.

This contest opens June 1, and each contestant may select at this time not to exceed three gilts and care for them till the end of the fitting period which ends Aug. 30, then pick out the best one to show.

The requirements of the contest are simple. The most it takes is a pig. The task of feeding and fitting pigs for show will be a pleasure and the experience will more than pay any boy or girl for their trouble.

Write to C. G. Carter, Fairmount, Ind., for pamphlet, rules and premium list, it is urged.

HOME MADE FLOOR WAX

Many housewives are busy at this season of the year, working over floors. Farmers Bulletin, No. 1219, Department of Agriculture, "Floors and Floor Coverings" gives the following proportions and directions for Home Made Floor Wax:

- 1 pint turpentine.
- 4 ounces beeswax.
- 3 ounces aqua ammonia (strength, 10 percent).
- 1 pint water.

Mix the beeswax and the turpentine and heat them by placing the vessel in hot water until the wax dissolves. Remove the mixture from the source of heat, add the ammonia and the water, and stir vigorously until the mass becomes creamy.

On varnished or shellaced floors this wax should be applied lightly and any excess wiped off at once, because ammonia dissolves varnish and shellac. Unfinished oak flooring polished with this wax will be darkened somewhat as a result of the chemical action of the ammonia. Turpentine is highly inflammable; therefore care must be taken in making these waxes to heat the ingredients only by setting them in hot water and to have no flames in the room.

Wax may be applied to a floor that has been stained, painted, or varnished, or directly on the bare wood. Hardwood floors are generally paste filled and in many cases surfaced with shellac varnish before being waxed. The paste fills up the pores, and the shellac varnish makes a hard foundation for the wax and prevents grease from penetrating and staining the wood. A waxed floor will be less slippery, however, if the shellac is omitted or if only a very thin coat is applied and well sandpapered.

Success in waxing floors lies in applying the wax in thin coats and rubbing it a great deal. One pound will coat about 250 square feet of floor. After the preliminary coats of filler or varnish are thoroughly dry the wax should be rubbed on with a woolen cloth, a piece of old carpet, or a brush, and allowed to harden overnight. The next morning the floor should be polished lengthwise of the grain with a weighted brush or a heavy block wrapped in woolen cloth, burlap, or old carpet. Then one or perhaps two more coats of wax should be applied and rubbed down in the same way as the first.

FIGURES REVEAL LESS MEAT USED

Consumption Decreased in U. S. 25.4 Pounds a Person in Period From 1900 to 1921

VEGETARIANS RESPONSIBLE

National Meat Board Is Organized With Purpose of Placing Meat in Its Proper Light

Chicago, May 1.—Meat Consumption in the United States decreased 25.4 pounds per capita from 1900 to 1921 according to the official figure from the U. S. D. A. This decrease in the per capita consumption is largely accounted for because of the widespread and insidious propaganda against meat by the vegetarians, manufacturers and distributors of other food products who through their advertising and other agencies try to create prejudice against meat.

Live stock farming is the foundation for a permanent agriculture, the greatest of our basic industries. Any propaganda responsible for the decrease in the consumption of meat not only reacts against the foundation of our national welfare but also against the source of income of the live stock producer.

The National Live Stock and Meat Board, with headquarters at 1665 Old Colony Building, Chicago, has been organized to place meat in its proper light before the general public and to remove the factors that are causing the low per capita consumption of live stock products. The producers of live stock, the packers who make it ready for consumption and the retailers, have felt the effect of this decrease and have organized to carry on an educational campaign to increase the consumption of meat and to show its value as food.

Mr. Howard Leonard chairman announces the appointment of R. C. Pollock as Managing Director of the National live stock and Meat Board. Mr. Pollock's experience in agricultural extension work and his national acquaintance with livestock breeders and producers should make him well qualified as director for this organization.

An attractive poster in seven colors, bearing the approval of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and picturing the value of meat as the chief source of strength and vigor is being distributed by the National Live Stock and Meat Board as the first step in a nation-wide campaign to counteract propaganda now being circulated to discredit the value of meat. Individuals, officials or members of farm organizations, live stock associations and agricultural organizations wishing to assist in placing meat consumption upon its former basis may obtain these posters in quantities by writing the National Live Stock and Meat Board, 1665 Old Colony Building, Chicago.

The National Live Stock and Meat Board is endorsed by the Packers and Stockyards Division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, breed associations, livestock record associations, livestock associations, farm organizations, packers, live stock exchanges, commission firms and numerous other interests interested in the livestock and meat industry.

Eleven of the seventeen members of the Board of the National Live Stock and Meat Board are producers. The other members represent the packers, the commission men and the retailers.

Members of the National Live Stock and Meat Board are:

- Howard Leonard, Chairman, Eureka, Illinois.
- W. M. McFadden, Chicago, Illinois.
- J. W. Coverdale, Chicago, Illinois.
- E. M. Gunn, Buckingham, Iowa.

EXIT "PERFECT 36;" ENTER THE "JAZZ 34"

New York, May 1.—The "perfect 36" is a thing of the past. The "perfect 34" is here. All on account of the American flapper.

American fashion designers have practically abandoned the "perfect 36" styles, which was based on the measurements on the Venus De Milo. The "jazz" age has produced a taller, less rounded, athletic type.

The American "Venus De Milo" is 5 feet seven inches in height, has a 34-inch bust, 22-inch waist and 34-inch hips. Her ankle measures eight inches. Her weight is 110 pounds.

The "perfect 36" is five feet four inches in height, with a 36-inch bust.

J. R. Bolton, fashion expert of New York, believes the new American type is an improvement.

COURT TO DECIDE PARENTS FOR CHILD

Suit Involves Rights Of Foster And Real Mother To Claim Child Born Out Of Wedlock

CHILD ADOPTED AS A BABY

Chicago, May 1.—Mrs. James Nuttall, foster mother of Beatrice Nuttall, 12 today claimed support of the child's father in the fight for her custody.

Charles B. Klinger, Waterloo, Ia., natural parent of the child, was said to have thrown his influence against the girl's real mother Mrs. James Morris who is seeking to recover her daughter.

The strange case, involving the rights of foster and real mothers to name of mother is to be decided following a hearing today in superior court by Judges Claire C. Edwards and Joseph B. David.

Mrs. Morris began proceedings to recover her daughter, born out of wedlock, claiming the baby was taken from her by relatives to avoid disgrace and given in adoption when a week old.

Louis Maury gave a classification talk on "Dry Goods", calling attention to the change in methods that have been evolved in the business and pointing out that the aim of business generally in this day and age is to perform a service as well as to earn a profit.

D. R. Merrell, teacher at Jackson school, who has organized the Boy Scout movement here during the past year, told something about the growth of the movement and the interest that the boys of the city are showing in it.

There are now five troops, composed of 124 boys, in the city, he said, growing out of one troop which was organized by Mr. Merrell last fall. Some of the boys are Junior Scouts.

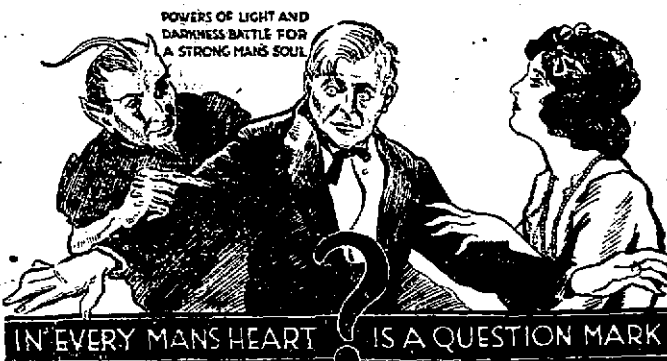

"The Boy Scouts is not a military or church organization," he pointed out, "as some people suppose. It is to correlate the work of the church. Scout headquarters does not recommend military work, but it is sometimes given where the sentiment of the community favors such activity."

Scouting is building for citizenship the Scout leader stated, and consists of woodcraft and nature work, hikes, training for outdoor life, such as cooking without utensils and remaining out over night while on hikes without the customary camp equipment.

Mr. Merrell said that the Scouts would be performing a service Wed-

Five scoutmasters are needed, he said, one for each troop. At present, Mr. Merrell is in charge of the old scouts and John A. Mulroy is in charge of the Junior Scouts, numbering 48.

"That is too many for one man," he commented, and added that he had been trying to interest some young men here in the work.

Mr. Merrell himself is handling three troops composed of 72 boys and finds it necessary to have three meetings a week, one for each troop.

"The movement is to furnish amusement for the boys, emphasizing the gang spirit," the Scout leader stated, "as a means of keeping them out of mischief and to teach them useful things."

Mr. Cotton voiced his appreciation at being admitted to membership in the Rotary club and spoke a few minutes regarding plans for the summer work among boys similar to that done last summer.

Mr. Cotton asserted that plans so far were indefinite, but that he had found the interest so high among the boys that if it were decided to hold another camp, two camp periods would be necessary to meet the demands of the larger number of boys who would desire to attend.

HOW TO WIN: Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be

Brains Plus Hands

An active brain and two good hands will keep the wolf from any man's door.

They will do more. They will fill the family larder, clothe your body, and swell your bank account from day to day.

Brains without hands are handicapped. Hands without brains are impotent.

The boy in your family has both,
but mind and hands are in a formative stage, where exceptional care and training are required to turn out a hundred per cent man.

The boy who looks for excuses,
and performs his tasks with the idea that they are irksome burdens, is using his hands but is not making the proper use of his brains. He may go far, and again he may not.

But the boy who goes at his tasks with a cheerful and willing spirit, with an active interest in his work,
and with a determination to do it just a little better than others, is using his brains as well as his hands. His progress will be rapid, and none may even predict where he will stop.

The boy who exhibits these commendable traits will be a persistent and determined climber of the ladder of life, and he will find his employers, or those for whom he labors, pushing him upward as rapidly as he is willing to climb.

A combination of brains and hands is invincible.

Your boy has them—see that he uses them.

Keep Off The Sucker List

A bunch of American financiers are advocating making Germany an enormous loan.

We have no objection to such a loan, provided the said financiers hand over their own money.

But that they will never do. They will sell these bonds to the American people, pocket their millions in commissions, and then invest those commissions in south American securities.

The American people have been milked before in the same manner, and the big financiers think they can milk us again and get away with it.

Look up the low price of foreign bonds at the present moment, remember the billions that Europe already owes us and can not pay, and hang onto your money.

If Wall street becomes convinced that it must lend its own money to Germany on very doubtful security, then Wall street will never make the loan—not a single dollar.

These financiers are not the fools and suckers they have sized up the public to be.

FIFTEEN YEARS
AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican
Friday May 1, 1908

Orville Graham, living on the James Ball farm north of this city, is suffering from painful injuries received in an accident while plowing for corn. The unfortunate man was breaking with a team of mules and in some manner while he was standing at their heads they started, running over him and the man became entangled and was thrown under the plow.

One of the trainmen on a J. M.
& I. train which came up from Madison yesterday was wearing his ear muffs when the train pulled into Rushville. He declared that when they left the Indiana city on the Ohio river there was two inches of snow on the ground.

Miss Edith Hiner of this city is second in the eighth district for the Star's trip to Europe. She has 126,554 votes. The race is between the Rushville girl and Miss Bertha Fultz of Columbus and as Rush county has landed everything she went after this year, the European trip promises no exception.

Roy Waggener and wife are moving their household goods to North Sexton street from Franklin. Mr.
Waggener is employed at the Case
Lumber company.

Shelbyville Liberal: The Misses
Grace and Elsie Bohannon of Rushville spent yesterday here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Akers.

Chester Smelser left today for Lafayette to visit his brother, Chase
Smelser who is attending Purdue University.

Miss Belle Forsythe, teacher in the Circleville school, has returned to New Concord, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Bliss and daughter Mary Louise went to Indianapolis today accompanied by Dr. Will O. Smith, where Miss Bliss underwent an operation for a small growth in the throat.

Born to the wife of Alvin Clark of Circleville, a nine pound boy, this morning.

Russel Cassidy has moved with his family from West Ninth street to the home of his mother, Mrs. Wier Cassidy, in North Jackson street.

Mrs. Nellie Abernethy has purchased the farm from James Whitton, near Gings station.

Bert Kennedy who returned from Louisville on account of illness a few days ago, where he was traveling for an artificial gas light company, is able to be out again.

Carthage Citizen: Harrison's orchestra of Rushville will furnish the music for commencement. Mrs. Will
S. Meredith, formerly Miss Lucy Welshman who taught music here, will probably play the accompaniments.

Marion—The Rev. Ephraim Allen died of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile driven by Noah Reasoner of Mathews.

Golfers Invade Britain

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 1—Ten of America's good amateur golfers are now in England preparing to go after the Walker international cup and the British amateur title. Chances are very good for an American victory in both events.

Joe Kirkwood, the Australian star, says that one of the ten should win the amateur title, and he looks upon Jess Sweetser, the Yale star and American champion as the probable winner. Kirkwood established himself as a good picker last year when he said that Walter Hagen would win the British open title.

If Sweetser or one of his teammates should come out first in the tournament it would mean the passing from the Britishers of the last important title that has been saved from the invading sport army of Uncle Sam. Since 1904, when W. J. Travis won the championship, the Britishers have always produced some home talent capable of beating the best in this country.

Jock Hutchinson and Walter Hagen put the American pro game in the ascendancy in 1921 and 1922 when they won the British open championship, and with Hagen and Gene Sarazen leading the American invasion this year it seems almost certain that another American victory will result.

Babe Ruth, in the opinion of Irish Meusel, the hard-hitting Giant outfielder, will hit sixty homers this season. The Giant star also ventures the prediction that his brother, Bob the Yankee outfielder, will smack out about forty. Bob, the older brother says, has cut out his foolishness and will step out this year like the good ball player that he has always given promise of becoming. It has been common belief ever since Bob came up to the big league that he would become a great star just as soon as he made up his mind to do it.

Preparations for Near East Bangle Day are well under way and if people give as heartily as the boys have worked there is little doubt about the success of the drive.

The patrol leaders and their assistants met with Mr. Merrell at his home in Jackson street last evening. A number of Scout topics were discussed. An initiation committee was elected. This committee will take charge of all new Scouts, showing them about getting started along Scout lines.

New Scouts joining this week are Robert Marrow and Walter Keaton, Troop 4; and Clarence Cross, Jr., and Charles Allen Troop 3.

Repair Work On Lawns

Lawn seeding to renovate bare spots damaged by winter freezing and to thicken up the turf as well as the seeding of new lawns should not be delayed. An idea of the amount of seed necessary is given by the following figures which refer to re-cleaned seed of the best quality. For new lawns, one pound of seed should be used for each 300 square feet; for one quarter of an acre 25 pounds. To build up old lawns, one-half or less will be sufficient, depending upon the condition of the sod.

On established lawns at this time either commercial fertilizer, bone meal, shredded cow manure or pulverized sheep manure dressing should now be given in order that the spring rains may carry the extra supply of plant food down to the roots. The concentrated fertilizers sold by most dealers should be sprinkled upon the lawn as soon as the frost is out of the ground. About 25 pounds to a space of 1,000 square feet, 50 by 20, is a sufficient amount and it will be a good plan to mix it with an equal amount of pulverized dry soil to render distribution easier and prevent any danger of burning. In new lawns double this amount will be needed.

If nitrate of soda is used, scatter it thinly after it has been pounded fine so that there are no large lumps remaining. This is the quickest acting lawn fertilizer in early spring but as it is only a temporary spur, other fertilizers should be used later on.

A quick catch for offending bare spots in a lawn is white clover. Many like a liberal supply of white clover in their greensward while others object to it.

Are Your Feet Fleshy?

If they are, you no doubt find it difficult to secure a shoe with sufficient width, in the proper length.

STYLISH SHOE SIZES were designed for but one purpose—to fit feet which cannot be fitted properly in ordinary "style" shoes.

The oxford illustrated has proven a wonderfully comfortable fitter on feet of more than ordinary width.

Others are in the latest modes with front drapes in the Egyptian fashion; sleeveless models covered with pearl bead embroidery and silver lace over white silk.

MURDERED AND BODY THROWN INTO RIVER

Conclusion Reached Regarding Plight of Warren J. Lincoln, Lawyer And Eccentric

MISSING FROM AURORA, ILL.

Aurora, Ill., May 1—Warren J. Lincoln, lawyer and eccentric, missing from his home here, was murdered and the body thrown into the Fox river, Sheriff Wm. E. Orr declared he believed today.

Orr ordered the river dragged and is confident of finding the body. The sheriff has clues, he asserts, that the relative of Abraham Lincoln was slain in a carefully laid but complicated plot.

Articles of women's apparel found about the Lincoln place were "planted" by the conspirators—a woman and two men—to give the murder an atmosphere of "scandal" leading away from the guilty parties, Orr said clues indicate.

Mrs. Lina Shoup Lincoln, the victim's estranged wife and her brother, Byron Shoup, are sought for questioning regarding Lincoln's life and domestic affairs, authorities announced.

Decatur —The lifeless body of Judge John C. Morgan was found in St. Mary's river at Ft. Wayne.

DRY LAW ATTACK ENDS

Indianapolis Ind. May 1—Attempts to invalidate Indiana's dry law in the United States supreme court was halted today, it was learned, when Attorney Harry Palmer of Vigo county asked for dismissal of the appeal. Action was based on contention that Indiana's 1917 Prohibition law, automatically became void with the enactment of the 18th amendment.

Columbus—Court-artial proceedings are under way against 14 members of Battery F. 150th field artillery, National Guard, charged with failure to appear at regular drill periods.

TODAY I AM REAL WELL

So Writes Woman After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

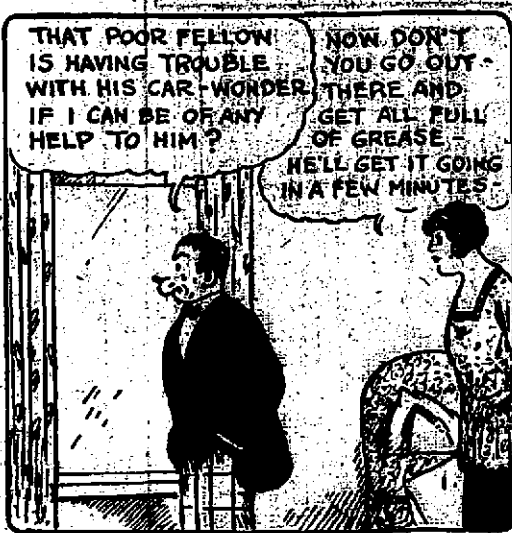

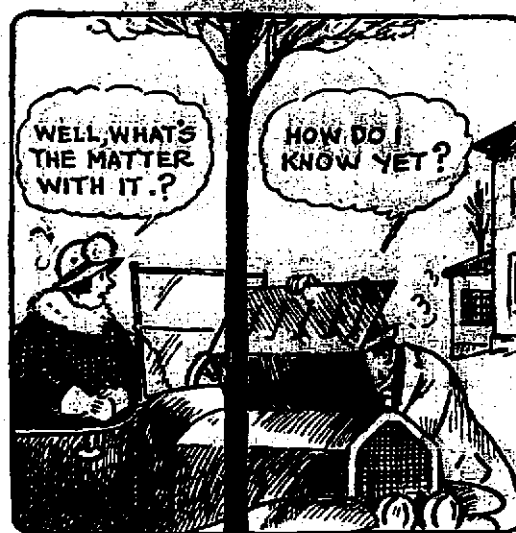

Jamestown, N. Y.—"I was nervous, easily excited and discouraged and had no ambition. Part of the time I was not able to sit up as I suffered with pains in my back and with weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, both the liquid and tablet forms, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash for inflammation. Today I am real well and run a rooming house and do the work. I recommend your medicine to every woman who complains, and you may use my letter to help any one else. I am passing through the Change of Life now and I keep the Vegetable Compound in the house, ready to take when I feel the need of it."—Mrs. ALICE D. DAVIS, 203 W. Second St., Jamestown, N. Y.

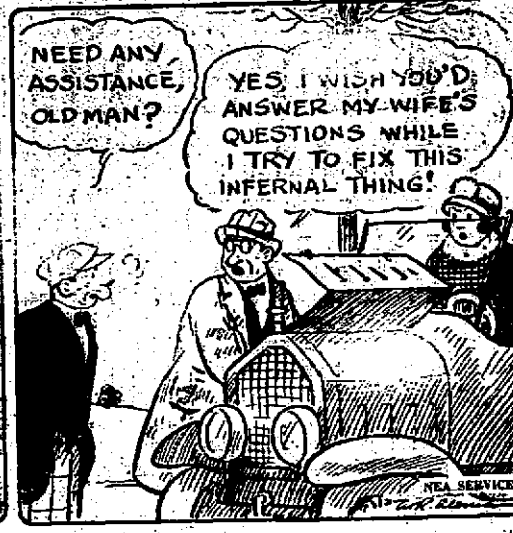

Often some slight derangement may cause a general upset condition of the whole system, indicated by such symptoms as nervousness, backache, lack of ambition and general weakness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine for such troubles. In many cases it has removed the cause of the trouble.

THEATRES MOVIES

At The Mystic Again

William Fox has disproved the theory that "there's nothing new under the sun."

In "My Friend the Devil," the Fox special production which opened a two day's engagement at the Mystic Theatre yesterday, he brings forth upon the screen a new type of entertainment that won unanimous approval at its initial presentation here.

It contains every element necessary for real entertainment—a novel plot, a powerful theme, unexcelled dramatic sequence, superlative portrayal, romance, thrills and a motive that will win the praise of every woman and child.

The story deals with a man whose faith in God had been washed away when his mother is killed by lightning while he was little more than a child. He has called upon God to strike his brutal stepfather who was ill-treating his loving mother.

Now, after many years, his faith is restored provides a theme that grips the interest through every inch of the picture.

To Charles Richman as Dr. George Dryden must go the honor of contributing to screen literature one of the finest, most powerful dramatic portrayals in the history of motion pictures.

Peggy Shaw, as Dr. Dryden's daughter, also gives a remarkable depiction of a difficult part. Others in the cast whose exceptional works deserve mention are Bennie Graner, William Tooker, Adolph Milar, Myrtle Stewart, Barbara Castleton, Mabel Wright, Alice May and Robert

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

Agnes Ayres At Princess

Trying to break her way into jail and failing in the attempt is the story, interesting as well as unusual, that is told in "Racing Hearts," a Paramount picture starring Agnes Ayres, which will be the feature at the Princess Theatre again today.

In the role of Virginia Kent, daughter of an automobile manufacturer whose company is about to be bankrupted because he will not spend money in modern advertising, Miss Ayres has one of the peppiest, fastest moving characters of her career as a screen star.

After trying every plausible method of persuasion on her father to make him resort to publicity and advertising and have him reject her every proposition, Virginia determines that she will seek some free publicity for the Granada automobile her father's machine. Consequently, she determines to speed through town noted for strict laws, have herself arrested in a Granada car, and thus obtain a lot of free newspaper advertising.

But a wealthy young man of the town, the son of a rival automobile manufacturer, falls in love with Virginia at first sight. It so happens that he is taking the place of the motorcop, who is absent celebrating a promotion. So when Virginia speeds down the road, he catches her and takes her to court. But having fallen in love with her, he pleads her case and even lends her twenty-five dollars with which to pay her fine, much to her own disgust, for she was doing her best to break into jail.

This is followed by many interesting incidents which make "Racing Hearts" one of the most delightful pictures ever screened. Theodore Roberts is featured as the father of Miss Ayres in the picture, while Richard Dix is leading man. Paul Powell directed the story, by Byron Morgan.

Tent Show All Week

The Doyle Dramatic Company, featuring good actors, good plays, good vaudeville, good music and law prices for an evenings entertainment, began a weeks run in Rushville last night, with the opening bill, "Three O'clock in the Morning." An entire change of program will be rendered each evening, with new vaudeville acts each night. The tent theatre is located on South Main Street, just south of the race, and across the street from the Adams Produce Company. The dramatic company has visited Rushville for years, and ranks foremost among the tent shows that visit here annually.

The tent was packed last night from the stage to the entrance. The bill for tonight will be a rural play, "The Old Homestead," followed Wednesday night will be, "Her Lost Sister."

their statements stand up with facts. He showed the proposed Indiana law was different from any in the country despite the farm bureau officials claims that it was "identical" with those of 17 states.

"It is interesting and significant to note that the co-operative marketing bill was not sent out to the farmers' organizations throughout the state," Governor McCray said in this connection. "Every effort was made by Farm Bureau officials to keep this in the hands of a small number who were at Indianapolis. When some officials of the Farm Bureau were asked why they did not give information to the farmers in the state they boldly stated that the farmers would not understand and there was too much chance of confusion and trouble. These very same men, in connection with the county unit bill and other measures, made a big demand for information that the people might have knowledge before they were asked to vote; yet on their own measure they refused to even allow their members to read the bill for fear they would not understand. Such a policy is harmful and raises the question as to whether these men were attempting to give the farmers accurate information or whether they wished to put over a bill and then make the farmers stand for it."

"If the co-operative marketing bill as offered in the Indiana legislature had become a law, Indiana farmers would have suffered in a way that cannot be estimated or measured. They have been saved from the measure that would have been destructive to their organization. Indiana farmers have a right to raise the question as to the attitude and object of their leaders."

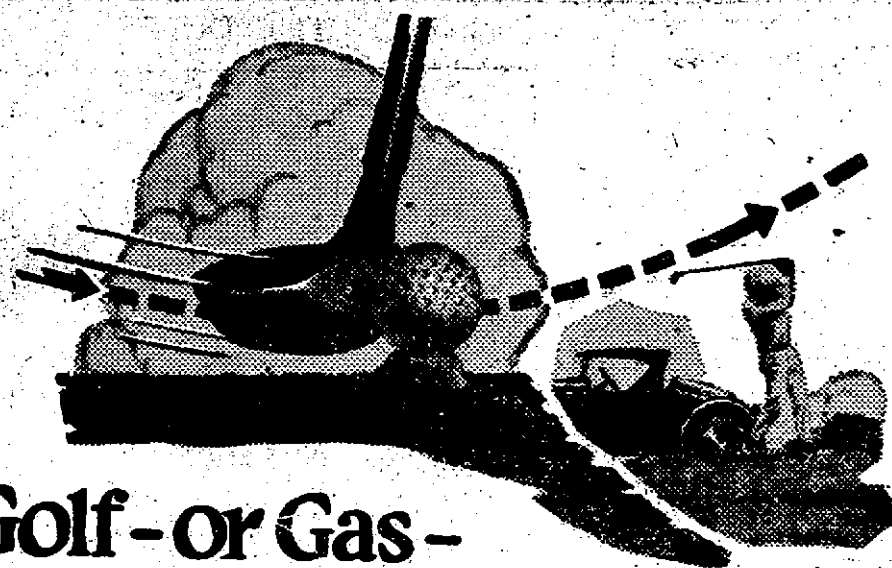

While taking occasion to speak plainly in demanding that critics limit their assertions to facts, Governor McCray used the question what is the state administration accomplishing? as the text of his speech, and he proceeded to answer it with specific details. The budget law, enacted soon after he became governor, he said put an end to haphazard expenditure of public money, and makes it possible to know ahead of time every expenditure in every unit.

"Taxes in Indiana need not go up," said Governor McCray. "On the contrary, it is reasonable to foresee reductions due to lower levies being fixed this year by the city, county and township officials, who entirely control about 90 cents out of every tax dollar. An income that will meet the state expenditures for the next two years seems a certainty, but the general property tax will finance only little more than half the expense. Briefly, this is what the state administration is doing financially. It is conducting state fiscal affairs in such a way that the taxes on general property will not be increased."

The gasoline tax and the increased automobile license laws, passed by the last legislature, alone make possible the paving of 1,000 miles of roads and the addition of another 1000 miles of road to the state system.

PORCH THIEVES AT WORK

Porch thieves are reported to be operating again; Mrs. Adam Urbach announcing today that a valuable potted plant had been taken from the porch of her home Monday night between 8:30 and 9 o'clock. The flower was too heavy to carry and was left in front of the house, which led Mrs. Urbach to remark that thieves should use automobiles.

Golf - or Gas - It's the "Follow-through" That Counts

"THROUGH!" cries the instructor. "Way through! Don't let your mind or your club stop short at the ball as though that were your final target. You'll only get real drive when your whole thought and action is to follow through!"

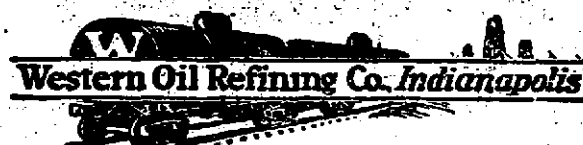

In golf, or gas—with Babe's Ruth's bat or the fighter's punch—from driving a tack to ramming a battle ship—the follow-through is the essential of power, control, effectiveness and economy of effort. Your motor was designed for a follow-through stroke—a powerful crowding explosion that follows up the piston with a steady, unbroken increment of pressure to the limit of its travel. Such strokes can't come from broken-backed kerosenish motor fuel whose ragged explosion becomes a series of uneven, destructive raps.

Silver Flash Gasoline

—provides the real follow-through in explosiveness. Its explosion is a steady, unbroken wave of expansion without a gap. There is no wet, slow-burning kerosene to impede its flame-travel, no free carbon to foul its action.

It is the fuel of unwavering decisiveness, following its clean, full impulse of power with smoothness of driving, greater mileage and preservation of your motor.
